(Hong Kong Chapter of the International League Against Epilepsy)

28th July 2022

Dear HKES members,

Invitation for the 14th International Epilepsy Colloquium 2022

Hong Kong Epilepsy Society Limited has launched a sponsorship for medical doctors to attend the 14th International Epilepsy Colloquium 2022 (hybrid meeting). This is supported by central funding of the society.

The sponsorship for each person will cover the registration fee only (HKD 1400 maximum). Information on the congress can be found at <http://www.epilepsy-colloquium2022.com>

The registration will be made by individuals. Reimbursement will be made after the conference upon submission of certificate of attendance/participation, invoice and payment record. The conference sponsorship is strictly for educational purposes in the furtherance of the scientific knowledge of the doctors. It shall not be subject to the selected individual's promoting or prescribing any commercial products nor intended to influence the professional judgment of any doctors.

Target Participants:

- Medical doctors with an interest in epilepsy
- Applicants with trainees and young fellows will have priority

Selection Criteria and Review Process

The Council of Hong Kong Epilepsy Society Ltd will review all the applications and hold the final discretion.

Application

Applicants should complete the Application Form (see attached) and send it to the Secretariat of Hong Kong Epilepsy Society Ltd at hkeshkes@gmail.com before 5th Aug 2022 at 5 pm.

The results of the application will be notified as soon as possible.

Yours sincerely,

Secretariat
Hong Kong Epilepsy Society
